BANKERS COME TO SUPPORT OF TRADERS

Call Money Drops from 20 Per Cent, Highest Rate, to 15

SET 8 MILLION RECORD

Stocks Drop Like Meteors, Then Rise Just as Quickly

BULLETIN

NEW YORK March 27 — Stocks of the American oil companies rushed up to higher price levels on the stock exchange today on reports that the heads of the oil companies at an important meeting here had agreed on a cooperative program for cutting down crude oil production

Sir Henri Deterding the head of the Royal Dutch Shell oil interests who attended the meeting promised full cooperation in Europe and South America in the oil conservation program

Industrial stocks rallied all over the board when the New York banks rushed in money supplies at the ruling rate of 15 per cent for call loans Radio sold at 110 up 17 points from Tuesday's low and leading motor and steel stocks rallied 1 to 3 points Stock sales at 1 30 p m totaled 3 691 000 shares against 3 639 100 in the same period yesterday

NEW YORK March 27—While the stock market still was upset there were indications today that big banks had come to the support of the market and that traders had lost some of the fright which engulfed them when call money soared to 20 per cent yesterday

The call money renewal rate fell from 20 to 15 per cent indicating that a fresh supply of funds had been thrown into the market

Leading bankers were understood to have agreed to support the market and to prevent disastrous bear raids which might lead to a dangerous break At ready market values have shrunk more than $1 000 000 000 since the federal reserve board began its campaign to curb speculation

There was a show of strength at the opening and a number of issues made gains but later weakness developed Union Pacific was off 2 points Bethlehem Steel 1¾ Kennecott Copper 2½ Columbia Graphophone 1 Yellow Truck 2½ and Radio fractionally

Some brokers believed that the record of 8 246 740 shares established yesterday might be equaled or even eclipsed unless the call money rate declined As most of the speculation is done upon funds obtained through call loans the price of call money thus becomes a regulator of stock market speculation

Speculators all over the United States have lost billion of dollars in paper profits as a result of the steady decline in stocks since the federal reserve board began to "put on the screws" to curb speculation

Traders were frankly puzzled by the action of the market Tuesday After dropping with meteor like swiftness as the result of the increase in the call money rate it suddenly turned about as rose as quickly as it fell

MINING CONDITIONS IN OHIO UNCHANGED

Union Head Sees Little Improvement After Two-Year Strike

COLUMBUS March 27—The second anniversary of the Ohio coal strike April 1 will find the mining districts of the state little better off than they were at the inception of the period of enforced idleness two years ago according to Lee Hall, president of the Ohio district of the United Mine Workers of America in an exclusive statement to International News Service here today

Things are in bad shape in the coal fields Hall said Only a few of the mines are operating and some of these only two days a week

We are planning a gigantic reorganization movement Hall continued in seeking the gradual reestablishment of the men without our ranks

When asked how long he thought it would take the coal fields to recover economically from the strike and resume full operations Hall refused to answer but admitted after further questioning that it would be in the far future

FREEDOM OF SEAS MAY BE INVOLVED

International Complications in Sinking of Canadian Schooner Are Serious

WASHINGTON March 27 — Serious are the international complications growing out of the coast guard's sinking of the Canadian auxiliary schooner I'm Alone by gunfire, that the whole question of the freedom of the seas threatens to be injected into negotiations between the Canadian and British governments and the state department

Moving cautiously to be sure of their facts the Canadians and British are preparing to confront Secretary of State Stimson—he will have taken over his duties by that time—with notes sent the British government in 1914 15 on the very issues brought up by the fate of the I'm Alone

Acted Under 22 Measure

The coast guard according to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon acted under the tariff act of 1922 which extended the territorial jurisdiction of the United States to the 1 [illegible] limit Under date of Dec 30 1924 this government in an [illegible] memorandum presumptions setting [illegible] Great Britain in connection with seizure of vessels for the purpose of [illegible] it is under municipal authorities [illegible] laws of international law

If British declare the American tariff act is in the nature of a municipal act in the international law sense and that they are not ready to concede the three mile limit of international law authorizing hot pursuit as extended by American statute

Claim Question of Affront

On the basis of the coast guard's own report and while the Canadian and British governments are awaiting the results of their own investigation the two governments are taking issue with the treasury's point of view and declared the question of an affront to the British flag enters into the case

A bitter fight in American circuits courts to upset the treasury [illegible]

THEATER SALE SCHEDULED IN COURT TODAY

Efforts To Name Trustee for Marion Photoplay Co Fail

NEGOTIATIONS END

Marion, Grand and Orpheum Included in Court Proceeding

BULLETIN

Phil Charnis of Bucyrus representing The Cleveland Theater Enterprise controlling theaters in many Ohio cities bid $1 000 for the personal property of the Marion Photoplay Co this afternoon This bid the highest submitted must be approved by the court He will also assume mortgages on the property aggregating approximately $8 000 The bid will be submitted to the court Monday Bids on the property started at $1000

• • •

After an unsuccessful attempt here to lift the receivership and name T J Huebner as trustee the Marion Photoplay Co three Marion theaters were to be offered for sale this afternoon in the common pleas auditorium to meet debts of the company Negotiations for handling the sale were in progress yesterday but failed to get to it

Had the plan to lift the receivership been complete and the trustee named the theaters would have been under actual supervision and not under control of the court Consequently Sunday picture shows stopped because of the theaters being under court jurisdiction could have been resumed

Sale Only Alternative

As this plan failed there was but [illegible] alternative and that was to proceed with the sale It is expected that Sunday programs will be started again under the new management

The theaters involved are the Marion Grand and Orpheum

Creditors were called yesterday in an attempt to sign a contract which would have been closely followed by an application to the court to lift the receivership and name Huebner trustee for the creditors He has been serving as receiver The terms of the contract could not be agreed on

All projection and theatrical equipment of the Marion Grand and Orpheum theaters is included in the sale conducted by I Malcolm Strelitz attorney Four mortgages must be assumed by purchaser Included in the equipment is a $12 000 organ at the Marion theater as pictured for $8 000

CALL RICHEST MEN IN FARM RELIEF

Senate Committeemen Ask Aid in Solution of Agricultural Problem

WASHINGTON March 27—In the most spectacular move ever made in behalf of agriculture the four richest men in America—John D Rockefeller Jr J Pierpont Morgan, Andrew W Mellon and Henry Ford—were asked today to help congress solve the farm problem

The names of these four billionaires —probably the four richest men in the world—topped a list of financial industrial and labor leaders sent telegraphic invitations to participate in the deliberations of the senate agriculture committee over a new farm relief bill If they accept the farmers of America will have the nations financial and industrial brains at their disposal in drafting a program of agricultural relief

Others Also Asked

Beside Rockefeller Morgan Mellon and Ford the committee invited Paul M Warburg famous international banker and active head of Kuhn Loeb & Co Owen D Young head of the General Electric Co and American aviation expert Charles M Schwab the retired steel capitalist President William Green, of the American Federation of Labor and others leaders in industry and labor All were urged to confer with the senate committee at the earliest opportunity

If the financial and industrial czars accept, an effort will be made to arrange a single conference which all might attend

If Rockefeller Morgan Mellon and Ford sat down at the same table it would bring $1 000 000 000 of wealth, at least into a single room If Warburg Young and Schwab were present too their combined wealth probably would exceed $5 000 000 000 They would bring too, the cream of the nations financial economic and

TODAY'S REVIEW OF YESTERDAY'S GRAIN

CHICAGO March 27—Certain stringency became a depressing factor in grains yesterday when the weakness in stocks inspired general liquidation breaking prices 4@6c In less than an hour around mid session A subsequent rally brought substantial gains from the low but not losses were large

Wheat prices finished the session ⅞@1c lower Corn was 2 3-8@2½c off oats 3-4@⅞c down and rye was 1¾@2¼c lower Winnipeg wheat futures closed 2⅞@3 1-8c off

Break Short but Swift

The decline was of limited duration but was drastic with the condition approaching panicky proportions Early prices were higher in wheat on strength in foreign markets but heavy selling of May wheat by prominent commission houses including one with eastern connections which had advised its clients to cover commitments from the May to the July supplied the demand and prices dropped back to the previous close

At this point heavy selling appeared in corn which had been comparatively dragged and prices dropped sharply Wheat soon followed as liquidation became general under the influence of weakness in stocks on the advancing money rate Sellers of daily privileges protecting themselves general commission house and local selling and heavy stop loss orders accounted for the flood of offerings for which there were few bidders

Buying power of any proportion was lacking until prices sagged into the weekly indemnities which holders and shorts bought firming the market and creating the basis of the later rally

News Is Ignored

Aside from the 5c@6d advance at Liverpool and comparative early strength at Winnipeg which accounted for local firmness at the outset news was ignored in the technical action of the market and the demand to unload long holdings

Crop comment continued mixed although there was growing complaint of need for surface moisture in Kansas The weather forecast is for fair and warmer

Cash wheat was dull and weak There was some export business on the break and Winnipeg's strength early was based on reports of 1 000 000 bu of Manitobas sold for export late Monday Bradstreet's report on world's available supply showed a decrease of 2 345 000 bu for the week

Little attention was paid to the government report on farmers intentions to plant.

Corn First to Weaken

News was not as favorable to holders in corn and in a light trade, that market felt the burden of liquidation first However corn showed a better rallying power than wheat after the break

Primary arrivals continued larger than a week ago and demand in the cash market was not as brisk Local shipping sales totaled 158,000 bu and 73,000 bu was booked to arrive mainly from outside markets

Sentiment in both wheat and corn were very bearish at the close and there was a demand for 'bids" In view of the large open interest in wheat there is a general expectation that liquidation will continue In corn it is feared the sharp break may bring increased offerings from the country to bear on the spot market in which the demand is none too brisk

In the cash market wheat was unchanged to 5c lower, corn steady to 4c off, oats unchanged to 2c down, rye dull and barley steady

Cars inspected Wheat 22, corn 103, oats 20, rye 10, and barley, 6

Meats Go to Higher Price Levels on Local Market

Meat prices are showing a rather unusual gain here this week with many prices running from two to five cents higher This indicates that the last cold snaps of the season will have high meat prices and that the markets will probably remain high until spring is here to stay

Dried beef which has gone up in price the last few days, is now standing between 65 and 70 cents a pound a [illegible] increase of 10 cents from the 55 and 60 cents last week This is the most noticeable change recorded

Bacon is now standing at — although but a few days ago it was priced at 10 cents Chuck roast registered a two cent gain and now stands at 27 Pork cellies are selling at 30 cents an increase of one cent over the 10 of yesterday

Sausage is also among the meat items to show a higher price this morning now standing at 22 cents instead of the former 20 Lard jumped from two pounds for 25 to two pounds for 29 Spareribs show a three cent gain from 17 cents to 20 cents while pork hearts started at 17 instead of the 15 cents earlier in the week

INSTEAD of exercise

Here's good news for the busy men and women who haven't time to take regular exercise Millions have already learned how to keep fit with the little exerciser in the vest pocket box for a dime

Cascarets make bilious headachy constipated people feel fine Their effect is not only quick but it's lasting They give the bowels as much real exercise as you get from an hour's bowling

Oils salts and ordinary laxatives don't act like Cascarets These things produce only mechanical or chemical action They actually weaken your bowels

Each time you use Cascarets your bowels become stronger Ask your doctor He knows they are made from Cascara Sagrada which stimulates the peristaltic action and strengthens the bowel muscles That's why Cascarets are selling at the rate of 23 million packages a year!

CASCARETS STRENGTHEN THE BOWELS

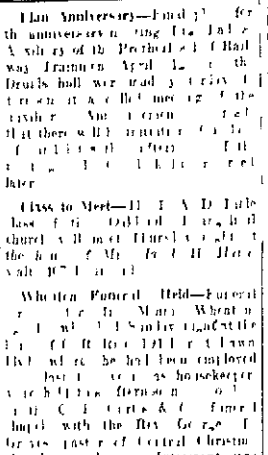
Splendid Work of Nu-Erb Is Told By A Marion Resident

"A Pleasure To Recommend It" He Says—Tells How It Relieved Rheumatism and Stomach and Kidney Ailments



MR C W TRAXLER

It is only a few weeks ago that Dr French's Nu Erb was entirely unknown in Marion but due to the real merit of this great herbal medicine it has sprung into almost instant popularity and scores of local men and women are coming daily to Stump & Sams Pharmacy 121 South Main st to tell of the wonderful good to be obtained through the use of Nu Erb Among them is Mr C W Traxler, 612 Park st Marion Ohio who is employed by the Blue Limestone Quarry

"For the past eleven years I have been a chronic victim of stomach kidney and liver troubles" said Mr Traxler Gas formed in what seemed like a huge lump in the pit of my stomach causing me much distress and severe pains This condition persisted no matter how careful I was of my diet and I suffered misery from one meal to the next My kidneys were very weak and I was troubled with a dull aching pain across my back staggering dizzy spells floating spots before my eyes and sickening bilious attacks I became extremely nervous slept poorly at night and awakened each morning with a splitting headache Rheumatism settled in my joints and muscles and they would become stiff sore and swollen

For many years I had been troubled in this way and although I used all kinds of medicine I am here to say that Nu Erb is the first one to give me any relief for it has surely done wonders for me in a remarkably short time It has entirely overcome the indigestion gas sourness and all other distress and pains in my stomach My kidneys are apparently much stronger the pains have left my back and they do not disturb me at night as they used to I no longer get those dreaded dizzy spells or spots before my eyes My nerves are steady I sleep soundly at night and I have not had a headache since using Nu Erb This medicine has also given me wonderful relief from the rheumatism It has improved my appetite and my bowels are acting more regular than they have for many years It is my opinion that anyone suffering in this way should give this new medicine a trial

Stump & Sams Pharmacy 121 S Main st is the only place in Marion where Nu Erb may be purchased Go see the Nu Erb man now making his headquarters there and let him explain to you the merits of this remarkable medicine—Adv

$1 HAIRCUT LOOMS

...nds of Chicago Barbers Will Bring Increase

...go, March 27—Business is ... in the barber trade. ... are running the wrong ... baseball pools are ... some other guy always ... other hand in the poker ... it's proposed to advance the price for what they erroneously call a haircut, to $1.

And it will not be anywhere near the actual haircut one formerly received for 25 cents.

Journeymen barbers are demanding a five-day week and that quitting time be 7 o'clock instead of 7:30. They also demand a wage scale of $75 a week with a guarantee of 60 per cent of all receipts over $47.

These demands along with the double price for overtime will necessitate the charge of a dollar for a haircut and a corresponding increase in the fee for shaving, master barbers say.

Fellowship of Prayer

Daily Holy Week Devotion

Prepared by Rev. Chaplain Wilson D.D., Secretary of Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America

Copyright 1929

Theme for the Week
"MY MASTER AND BROTHER"

Memory Verse for Wednesday

"I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now." (John 16:12). (Read John 16:12 to 21.)

MEDITATION: This day in our Lord's last week is a day of silence so far as the records inform us. The surmise that He spent the day in seclusion with the disciples or in the home in Bethany is plausible. It would be in keeping with His serene, untroubled spirit. He had yet many things to say but it was not necessary to say everything. He was going away but the Comforter was coming. The future would still have access to divine guidance. So I must still look for the unsaid things which past ages could not bear or understand. There is more truth to break forth. Nor will it all come to me or my time. I also may be untroubled and unafraid. Divine guidance will not fail the future as it has not failed the past.

PRAYER: Almighty God who in Thy providence hast made all ages in preparation for the kingdom of thy Son; we beseech Thee to make ready our hearts for the brightness of Thy glory and the fulness of Thy blessing in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Finals In High School Contests Set For April 6

Marion Star Bureau
Ohio State University

COLUMBUS, March 27—District eliminations in the first annual Ohio High School Scholarship contests will get underway at five state universities and normal schools of Ohio next Saturday.

Eliminations will be held at Ohio State university, Miami university, Kent State Normal school, Bowling Green State Normal school and Marietta college.

Winners of the county eliminations to be held in most of the counties last Saturday will compete in the district eliminations at the state school nearest to the county. Winners of the eliminations in Marion, Union, Morrow and Delaware counties will go to Ohio State university for the district eliminations and Harlan Wendell Crawford, Marion high school senior, will go to Bowling Green State Normal school.

The finals in the contest will be held at Ohio State university April 6. Approximately 60 students will come to the campus to Dr. Horace H. Davis of the department of school administration at the university who is in charge of the contest. Thirty awards in the form of scholarships will be given to the final winners.

Each of the district examinations will cover 12 subjects represented by the regular high school work. A total of 1 enters will take part in the district contests with 20 points for the finals.

Ritzy Rosalie

ROSALIE'S imported crepe de Chine signal flag scarf might prompt the conscience of the sailor X W O I in the background should he chance to see it. It is smart to wear the color of the high seas whether it be printed on a long scarf like Rosalie's or on a crepe de Chine frock. And just as colorful are the modernistic mechanical designs which look as if all the nuts bolts cogwheels and whatnot from a machine had fallen in a splash of color.

4 HOMES ADDED TO BUILDING PROGRAM

Permits Issued for Construction Projects on Walnut st.

Building permits for four dwellings on the south side of East Walnut st. have been issued from City Clerk Sheriff Kelly by Mrs. Lillian M. Cox. The estimated cost of construction is $1,[illegible].

The building group of buildings on East Walnut st. is less than a week old, the permit at more than $1,000 being issued to C. Campbell late last week. Permits for four dwellings are the first.

Other permits boost the total so far this week to $12,655.

Daily Proverb— Those who have known grief seldom seem cold.

Literature says Thornton Wilder is the orchestration of platitudes. Put that Thornton! You're giving up the definition of campaign oratory.

Two bandit slayers of an Indianapolis druggist have been sentenced to life prison terms. Every once in a while the law abiding element of the country gets a bit of cheering news.

Miss Annie Adair Foster suggests that in stead of companionate marriage companionate bridge be given a trial. We don't know Annie but like it from us that she's suggesting that humanity rush in where even angels fear to tread.

Premier Rivera of Spain says he has grown old in the five and a half years of his service and intimates that he may throw up his job before the time originally set by him and leave the country to her fate. All of which goes to show that the Spanish dictator can recognize a hint when it is sufficient pronounced.

The fifty sixth session of the Japanese diet came to an end Tuesday without having enacted a new measure. Gee! How it would boost the batting average of the joy of living were it able to get our legislative bodies over here to perform like that!

Gar Wood's wonder boat Miss America VII averaged a speed of 93.123 miles an hour in six trials at Miami Beach Monday and established a new world record. Any way Major Segrave will not carry back to England all the speed records which he came over here to acquire.

Sir Ernest Benn says that our age will be known as the age of committees. Any time the reader has a spare week or two let him think up if he can any great enterprise in dustry or achievement that owes its existence to a committee and then he will appreciate the sadness of Sir Ernest's observation.

Clarence Darrow says that laws should be like clothes that they should be made to fit the people they are meant to serve. It is hard to see where Clarence has any ground for complaint. The most of our laws—at least the most of our criminal laws—are made to fit the criminal world they serve so well.

The New Traffic Ordinance

We do not imagine that all residents of Marion of reasoning years took the time to read the new traffic ordinance enacted by the city council and given legal publication in last Wednesday's Star but all of them should motorists and pedestrians alike. It's a duty they owe themselves a duty they owe their fellow citizens a duty motorists owe to pedestrians and a duty pedestrians owe to motorists. By informing themselves of the provisions of the new ordinance citizens may save themselves possible annoyance trouble and loss. By following them citizens may possibly save themselves and save others from injury and death. It is only when citizens know their own rights and appreciate the rights of others that they are in position alike to save themselves and others from injury both bodily and financial.

We do not know how effectively the new traffic ordinance will be enforced. If motorists are permitted to go against stop lights or advance against them to make right hand turns, if they are permitted to make left hand turns without regard to foot traffic or block crossings, if pedestrians are permitted to advance against stop signs or jaywalk across the business thoroughfares at other than defined crossings the ordinance will not be worth the cost of giving it legal publication.

But if its provisions are enforced as they should be if infractions of it are not overlooked and manifest contempt for it not permitted to go unpunished it should add to the safety of vehicular and foot traffic alike.

As we read it there is question even in the picture of section 18 which denies to pedestrians the right to cross at right angles in the congested district if there is an alley at the section and gives that right to vehicular traffic. The reader of the ordinance will not see that the congested district as defined by the ordinance takes in a lot of territory. Just why such a provision as this illustration should not be permitted to cross State street at the intersection of that street with the first alley south of George street while any vehicle may is to us something of a mystery. It is our impression that the ordinance is a little bit broad in this respect and that that section might well be amended. Further information regarding it is to be commended.

Now let us hope that a wide publicity may be given to the provisions of the ordinance and that the fact of its enforcement may also be afforded.

After All, What Is Economy?

Much resentment seems to have been given to the decision of President Hoover to use the presidential yacht Mayflower out of commission and closing the White House staff to go only by way of news reference but editorially is well. It is easily understood how one who has to earn the money he possesses appreciates the value of it and how waste is repugnant to one of the president exceeding thrifty practices mind. If President Hoover does not care to use the Mayflower it is the sensible thing to return the seven line presidential vessels to the army and relieve the four brother officers of other duty. If he has no use for the Mayflower it is the economic proper course to put her out of commission and thus permit the assignment of seven of her nine officers and the enlisted men of her crew to other duties. Especially is this true at a time when there is a scarcity of men and officers properly to equip the naval vessels in commission to say nothing of the fifteen new cruisers to be commissioned within the next three or four years. We say release seven of the nine officers for the reason that two of them are serving the president as it is one as his naval aid and the other as his physician.

But we are frank to say that we are not greatly impressed by the stated saving of $50,000 annually the laying up of the Mayflower will effect although $50,000 is a sum which is not to be despised. If the president does not care to use the Mayflower and we can understand why he does not the saving is a splendid one but the fact that Mr. Hoover does not care to make use of her should not cause any successor in the presidency to hesitate to make use of her for an expenditure of $450,000 a year if it will assist materially in giving a president relaxation occasionally and aid in maintaining his health from any well invested it costs a lot of money to elect and inaugurate a president. Counting the money expended in the pre primary campaign the money expended by the national committees the money wasted by congress in playing politics the money expended by state county and municipal committees the cost of the time given to politics by the friends of the candidates in the various political divisions and the cost of the inaugural the cost of electing a president may be conservatively estimated at $25,000,000. Aside from all humanitarian considerations the life of a president is valuable to the nation. Keeping a president in health that his mental processes may be at the maximum is a matter of import to the nation. The little things of life are those which most annoy. The big trials of life are often met with fortitude while the little annoyances harass. If a week end or longer yacht trip will give a president relaxation and opportunity to get away from them the cost of maintaining a yacht for his use the people of the land can very well afford to meet.

And we feel that the same can be said for a summer residence for the president whether it be the one selected by congress or some other local on near to Washington. We do not mean a summer White House to which the president may carry his duties as president to escape the heat of Washington but a summer residence to which the president may go to escape alike the heat of the capital and the duties which are his there. The mere fact that President Hoover does not fancy the summer residence selected should not be permitted to work against its selection. His predecessor favored such a summer residence very probably his successor also may. As we have stated President Hoover has the means to do as he will in the matter of getting away for a summer outing not all presidents in the past have been so blessed. Not all in the future may be so fortunate.

All that is sought for the running of the state of Ohio for the next two years is $111,100,000 of which the appropriation bill assigns $37,740,000 to the state highway department under a blanket clause and $9,879,206 goes to the Ohio state university. Provided the house bill goes through as drawn it would be interesting to know what the people of the state generally actually get in benefit out of these two items.

Of Italy's 9,650,000 registered voters and that means just about all in that land entitled to vote 8,651,473 turned out to vote in Sunday's referendum 8,506,000 of them approving Mussolini's five years of dictatorship and 135,198 voting in opposition to it. Do you suppose it would be possible to get Benito to come over here and show us how to get out a ninety per cent vote?

A New York doctor is urging physicians not to frighten their patients by telling them they have irregular hearts the doctor holding that irregular or extra heart beats are perfectly normal in many cases especially upon first lying down at night or when resting following exercise. Is there not danger that his New York doctor may be guilty of violating professional ethics?

Secretary and Mrs. Frank Kellogg and Ambassador Hugh Gibson will sail for Europe Friday on the de luxe steamer Olympic. Mr. Kellogg will attend the meeting of the League of Nations council at Geneva and Mr. Gibson to the meeting of the preparatory commission for the disarmament conference. Both will be absent about six weeks.

A California judge has ruled that he does not consider women jurors competent to sit in the trial of cases involving the effects of the Volstead act. Which is certainly encouraging to the women who have been looking forward to enforcement law which will be less for an escapade of sequestered members of the household than to assist in making the Jones law operate in the state.

It is said that Mr. Coolidge will not be a candidate for the republican presidential nomination in 1932. Which is all right with us. We have been for Coolidge for president for the last time.

Loved Surroundings.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

All the world took a sympathetic interest in the welfare of King George of England. His modesty and goodness of heart apparently endeared him to everybody. His medical bulletins recording the progress of his illness were read by millions.

A few weeks ago the king was removed from Buckingham palace in the south of England. I was interested in this particular statement in the announcement of his transfer. The location for King George's recuperation was chosen largely for the mental benefit it was hoped he would derive from its proximity to the sea which he loves and where he was trained as a sailor when a prince.

Have you ever been homesick?

Did you ever long for the scenes and friends of your childhood? When you have been ill with a fever did you yearn for the cold water from Palmer's spring or some deep well where you were wont to assuage your thirst in the days of long ago?

Of course you have. I have—many and many a time.

The king's doctors were wise. By stimulating the memories and emotions they were giving their royal patient a tonic better than anything that comes in bottles or capsules.

Our Christian Science friend whether we agree with all their doctrines or not have certainly put emphasis to a great truth in insisting upon wiping out worry and mental disturbance. As he thinketh in his heart so is he—said the Wise Man.

We are really what we are in our hearts and souls. When our surroundings harmonize with our inner feelings we are happy. When they do not we are restless and miserable.

One of the most important things to do for the sick person and one of the most important things the well person can do for himself is to have the surroundings and associates agreeable as possible.

But do not misunderstand me. I would not have you fret and fume over your surroundings if you are powerless to change them. Perhaps the highest test of absolute sanity of mind is the power of adjustment to conditions as they exist. There is something wrong with you if you are in constant battle with things as they are.

It is your duty to your self and to those who love you to keep sweet and calm and content as may be with existing conditions. You must strive of course to improve things but don't fret and fume. If you find it out of the question to make them better. Try to adjust your life to things as they are if they can not be bettered.

Of all the difficult ailments to heal the hardest is broken heartedness, homesickness or soul yearning from many causes. Here our hats are doffed as members of the family and neighbors to lighten the burdens of those who suffer in this manner.

Do not permit your self to be the helpless victim of such suffering as I have described. It is a real factor to be regarded.—Copyright 1929, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Editorial Opinion.

IS THERE A PENALTY?

Can congress be justly penalized for refusal to obey the constitutional mandate for biennial reapportionment of representatives? The question is directly implied in a case which has just been submitted to the supreme court of the United States for judgment. In this case the general assembly of the state of Illinois is the delinquent but its delinquency is precisely similar to that of the congress of the United States.

Under the constitution of Illinois the general assembly is required to make a new apportionment of members every ten years beginning with 1871. It did make such apportionment in 1871, in 1881, in 1891 and in 1901. But then it stopped the process. No apportionment was made in 1911 and none in 1921. Thereupon John B. Ferguson, a citizen and taxpayer of Cook county brought suit to enjoin the state treasurer from paying any salaries to the members of the general assembly on the ground that they were members of a body that was not constitutionally formed and that therefore had no legal existence. The final decision of the supreme court of Illinois was that while the duty of reapportionment undoubtedly rested upon the general assembly it rested upon that body alone and that the courts were powerless to compel it to perform that duty or to penalize it for doing so. Against that decision Mr. Ferguson has appealed for redress to the supreme court of the United States.

It is of course impossible to foretell the decision which will in due time be rendered at Washington nor would it be respectful to the court to do so. But it will not be inappropriate to reflect upon the moral effect of the decision whatever it may be. If the court should order reversal of the Illinois decision then it would affirm that the state judiciary had power to take cognizance of the failure of the legislature to perform its constitutional duty and could either compel it to act or penalize it for not acting. The natural inference from that would be that the federal judiciary had similar authority to deal with the failure of the congress to perform its similar constitutional duty.

On the other hand let us suppose the supreme court of the United States should uphold the judgment of the Illinois tribunal. That would apparently mean that the Illinois legislature could refuse persistently to perform its constitutional duty in spite of the courts. By similar token congress could do the same. The Illinois legislature has passed without action two decennial apportionment dates and congress has passed one. But the right to pass one or two implies an equal right to pass ten or twenty. What persistent refusal of reapportionment would mean half a century hence may be seen from what it would have meant in the past. Thus if congress had refused to reapportion after the reapportionment of 1871 Massachusetts would now have only eleven members or two fewer than Indiana and there would be such monstrous inequalities as Connecticut and California having four each, New Hampshire and Kansas three each and Vermont and Minnesota three each—facts which might well be considered by those western states which have been opposing reapportionment—while Texas and Maryland would have six each and Colorado and Nebraska each only a single member. Obviously in such circumstances we should have a rump congress unimpaired with which the notion of a rump parliament would seem respectable.

We must hope that long before the supreme court can reach this case on its calendar congress will have made such arrangement as is possible for the conformation to existence of its predecessors. Apparently the matter can not be perfectly adjusted until after the census of next year is taken. If congress were to make an apportionment for the 1930 election on the basis of the census of 1920 there would be some little rights of the wrong. But it would then be necessary to make another reapportionment for the 1932 election on the basis of the census of 1930. Between the expected action of congress at next months special session and the action of the supreme court in the Illinois case it ought to be possible to assure the republic against further such outrages upon the constitution as the last four congresses have committed.—Boston Transcript.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. McINTYRE

New York, March 27.—The [illegible] for those carefree and [illegible] campus over New York's underworld [illegible]. Out to day they are dressed [illegible] who shave blue and sip [illegible] and the gentleman product must seem very [illegible].

[illegible] man hunt was for a character known as Tough Willie and after playing hide and seek with the police for a while he turned up [illegible] for a desperate [illegible] at the Broadway [illegible] to rob one of the [illegible] Webster [illegible].

He was allowed [illegible] manner of a movie [illegible] and [illegible] dip to his name [illegible] to and—O the thrill of [illegible]. He wore a [illegible] bamboo cane the police were unable to find [illegible]. Yet his name is said to have [illegible] England in white faced terror.

New York has much of its strong armed stiffs gorillas and [illegible] but they never mug. They turn out to be chinless chicken chested youths with suspicious courbs who are primed with cocaine turned loose with guns which they fire and hand quickly to a woman confederate.

New York bad men rarely meet and shoot it out in the old [illegible] the boys used to do around Dodge City. Today the victim is stalked for days and when the auspicious moment comes is riddled in the back with machine guns from a speeding taxi. Or is lured to a hotel room and ganged.

The underworld itself does no killing himself. He can find drug crazed weaklings and furnish the perfect alibi by his conspicuous presence in the cafe or theater when shots are fired. Through mysterious channels his vengeance becomes known and he is a hero among his kind.

Nearly all sensational murders in New York in the past decade—from Rosenthal to Rothstein—led to the trail of hired killers. And were due to the sinister consequences of thieves falling out among themselves. The bad man in the West has gone the way of the buffalo in the West.

The agonizing anxiety of theatrical producers over a first night is not just a nervous whim. A show may draw sour notices from every quarter and survive. But rarely will it survive a jerky badly managed premiere. A year or two years ago was sure but—a hit—not it closed in a week. A certain stuck for ten minutes revealing all the back stage flurry and confusion. It could not overcome that handicap. A dramatic recital suffered the same fate because lights went out for five minutes during a tense scene. Animals are dangerous in any production. A $400,000 musical hay was practically laughed off the boards because of the antics of a donkey in the opening scene.

* * *

It is history too that the producer who scores a smash with his first production rarely lasts long. His second effort almost invariably flops because he is too sure of himself. The producer who has failures learns of production weaknesses. He is acquiring showmanship through experience.

About ten years ago Fifth avenue was brightened every late afternoon by The Man in White. In all seasons he appeared hatless wearing a costume of white trousers white shoes and a white silk sport shirt open at the throat. He was a jobless foreign opera singer and adopted this publicity measure in hope of a job. He sang for a few weeks at a Broadway movie house and was seen no more. Now there is a Man in Blue—his costume being blue even to his cane shoe uppers and eyeglass ribbon. And of course they wonder what's the idea. Probably very little.

One of those farthest North sales ladies in an avenue store met her match in a perky flapper customer upon whom she had bestowed several shoulder shrugs and a glassy stare. What are you supposed to do around here? inquired the flapper besides being a duchess?

PASTOR ANSWERS ANCIENT QUERIES

Identity of God Discussed in Sermon at Trinity Baptist Church

The Rev Lawrence A Wood pastor of Trinity Baptist church addressed a large congregation last night in a sermon answering two questions that old as man The questions are Who Is God and What Is God Like

The sermon was one of a series being given this week by the pastor in preparation for Easter Sunday Members of the Rael class and members of Emmanuel Baptist church and the Rev S F Porter were present in a body to attend the services

The Rev Mr Wood said in his sermon The answer to these questions was given when Jesus made His statement He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father Some men have thought of God as a super man but much like themselves Others have conceived of God as infinite but distant and indifferent powerful but cruel Into the thinking of man Jesus interjected an entirely new idea He presented the thought of God as a Father loving patient and powerful to help This idea of God revolutionized man's thinking Today we think of God as our kind loving heavenly Father

Tonight the C I C class of which C Dewitt Shadaker is president and Mrs H I Pulsford leader will be the special guests of the minister and congregation The sermon topic will be Eternal Life a Transforming Conviction

The class will present a special musical group including a solo by Mrs Shadaker a duet by Mrs J P Davis and Mrs Eldon Myers a violin solo by Elton Pont a male quartet Terry Clapsaddle George Schneider Frank Butterworth and Dexter Hazen and the class song Love Lifted Me.

The C I C class is made up of the young married couples of the church The attendance report for last Sunday listed 82 present in the class for that day

All the young people of the church have been extended a special invitation to attend the services Thursday night

WASHINGTON Ma[illegible] stock market [illegible] Americ[illegible] period [illegible] a move [illegible] by bankers [illegible] about a [illegible] of the idea [illegible]

The [illegible] was a [illegible] of the [illegible] few days and [illegible] of [illegible] sequent rally at the close went [illegible] session when the [illegible] board went into session today

There [illegible] that if the market recedes [illegible] addition to the [illegible] Bank credit going [illegible] Board will [illegible] money for the benefit of speculations in commerce industry and agriculture

Will Have Weapon

The easing up [illegible] would take the form of reduction in rediscount rate heavy purchases of government securities in the open market or a combination of both No easy money policy will be adopted however until market tendencies are carefully studied and until brokers loans are far under the record set up last Thursday with $8 70 000 000

If the Bank [illegible] to drive bank credit out of the market by a combination of push [illegible] and appeal for cooperation by the member banks started with the public statement Feb 7 it will have its full wholesome fear into the hearts of speculators and can hold them [illegible] continually over what is considered excessive speculation

Hopes to Ease Situation

With this situation established the board might be in a position to create an easier money market without the danger of another unprecedented demand for speculative credit Lapses on each of the past however show that the finance of mankind is delicately balanced mechanism and that upward or downward tendencies once launched are difficult to stop

The board hopes to get the credit situation well in hand before the end of March It was pointed out that business is beginning to feel the pinch of higher priced money The demand for commercial money is increasing according to reserve board reports The country is believed to be facing another year of prosperity barring excessive interest rates

Officials declared that the board has no thought of seeking to regulate stock prices and is concerned with values and speculation only so far as these activities force money rates to attractive figures that tend as a matter of fact to funds from all over the country cutting down the supply of commercial cash and forcing interest rates higher

ment's conception of its rights under the tariff act and the British anti smuggling treaty of 1924 was forecast as a prelude to settlement of the many international aspects of the sinking of the vessel

The master of the I'm Alone Capt John T Randall wartime lieutenant commander in the British navy is being held in $5,000 bail for trial at New Orleans by the coast guard authorities under charges preferred by the warrant officer commanding the cutter Dexter It was the Dexter which sank the vessel 200 or more miles out in the Gulf of Mexico after the cutter Walcott had started the pursuit two days before

Rests on Three Points

Informally officials state department officials are inclined to accept the British interpretation of territorial jurisdiction ending at the three mile limit both under international law and the anti smuggling treaty The first paragraph of the treaty definitely commits the United States to acceptance of this principle of international law

The Canadian case rests on three major points each irrespective of the other and to the British and Canadian mind sufficient to outlaw the coast guard cutters First is the three mile limit contention next the question of continuity of the pursuit and finally the right to sink a vessel under either of the two circumstances asserted by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon resulting in the death of a British seaman

May Affect Treaties

The belief grew stronger today that the act of the coast guard has endangered not only the anti smuggling treaty which affects the entire British commonwealth but the Canadian border treaty as well The Canadian have swallowed as a bitter dose here before the American conception of territorial jurisdiction under both the anti smuggling treaty and the American tariff act three years have gone against them in American courts

Observers here familiar with the Canadian public opinion assert that the I'm Alone case offers us an opportunity as any to bring the issues to a head and abrogate one of the treaties

Even in hard water, dirty dishes are easy to wash

But before washing them, you must soften the water with Melo. Soap and soft water never make scum. In soft water no dirty ring forms around the dishpan. Dishes sparkle in soft water and grease is cut.

Water softened with Melo is a wonderful cleaner, with or without soap. Melo makes soap more effective, saving from ⅓ to ½ the amount ordinarily used. Use Melo wherever you want soft water. Get it at your grocer's.

MOVIE ACTRESS IS RESCUED BY NURSE

Hollywood, Calif.—No Klieg lights blazed, no cameras ground out footage, as this rescue was staged. But to Miss Harmony Haynes, 6021 Fountain Avenue, the motion picture actress who was rescued, the experience was more thrilling than any celluloid rescue she ever took part in. For this was reality. Clinging to the edge of her shattered health, and with broken nerves constantly threatening to drive her over the brink, Miss Haynes—but let her tell her own story:

"A year ago," she says, "I was working in a Harry Langdon comedy. Night hours, work each day on the set, an hour making up in the morning and another hour getting the make-up off in the evening, and sewing until the wee sma' hours of the morning—this was more than a strong girl could stand and I had never been strong. I broke all at once and the doctor ordered me to bed. Five months later I was still there—still nervous and ill.

Gives up caffein

"My little nurse always brought her own tray into my room and ate with me but she never used cereals. 'Cause,' I said to her one morning, 'what possible good do you find in such a breakfast?'

"'Try Postum for a month, and you'll see', she replied.

'I tried Postum every morning after that. I liked it. And before long my nerves were as steady as hers. I think I owe that little nurse my life for showing me the Postum route back to health, and I do wish all the nervous girls in the world would try it.'

Rescue repeated

The simple diet change—caffein to Postum—has worked a miracle in thousands of cases. For so often sleeplessness, nervousness and other ills that are charged to overwork or other conditions, are chiefly due to a common mealtime indiscretion. The regular use of the stimulant each a day takes its toll—eventually something snaps.

Don't wait until shattered nerves drive you to a sick bed! Make the change from caffein to Postum now! Try this new diet for thirty days—then judge! You'll be astonished at the difference it can make—in the way you sleep, in the way you feel—yes, in the way you look!

Postum contains no artificial stimulant of any kind—nothing to disturb sleep, to harass nerves and heart, to affect digestion. Postum is made of roasted whole wheat and bran. A drink you can enjoy every meal of the day with only the best after effects. And you will enjoy it! Postum has a rich, full bodied flavor that millions prefer to that of any other drink.

Your grocer has Postum in two forms—Instant Postum made instantly in the cup, and Postum Cereal, prepared by boiling. Both cost less than coffee; meal-time drinks for one cost only a cup. Order it today—try the 30-day test!

Aurora Ill., Stirred Over Killing of Woman in Dry Raid

TWO INVESTIGATIONS UNDER WAY TODAY

Grand Jury To Inquire Both into Killing and Legality of Raid

WARRANT USED TWICE

Family's Attorney May Demand Case Be Taken from Prosecutor

AURORA, Ill., March 27—With the entire city of Aurora stirred to a frenzy over the killing of Mrs. Joseph De King in her home by dry raiders, and with the citizens demanding a thorough sifting of facts and the fixing of responsibility, two routine investigations were under way today.

One is being directed by Coroner Herman J. Vierke, whose only official interest is with the slaying.

The other is headed by State's Attorney George Carbary of Kane county, who, through the grand jury, will inquire not only into the killing of Mrs. De King and the wounding of one of the raiders by her 12-year-old son, but also into the question of the legality of the raid.

Force Their Entrance

State's Attorney Carbary, who was elected on a "dry reform" ticket pledged to mop up Kane county, is quoted as saying that he is "100 per cent behind the raiders."

Mrs. De King was shot in the abdomen and mortally wounded after she is said to have threatened the raiders with a gun because they had beaten her husband insensible. Seeing his mother shot down, the boy, Gerald, seized his father's revolver and wounded one of the raiders.

The action took place in the dining room of the De King home after the raiders forced entrance to search for liquor. They claim they found a gallon of wine in the house.

Evidence to Grand Jury

Robert A. Milroy, formerly an assistant United States attorney, now counsel for the De King family, declared that unless immediate action is taken against the raiders, whom he accused of "wanton murder," he will petition for a special grand jury and the appointment of a special prosecutor to take the case out of Carbary's hands.

In a preliminary statement, Carbary declared he would back up the raiding officers, including Deputy Sheriff Roy Smith, who did the killing. In a later and less emotional statement, however, the prosecutor said he would present all the evidence to the grand jury and let that body come to its own decision.

Meanwhile, said Carbary, there will be no arrests—neither of Smith, in connection with the killing, nor of De King, for resisting the raiders.

Legal Aspect Most Vital

The most vital question, it is agreed, is the legal aspect of the raid—whether De King was acting within his rights when, with a pistol in each hand, he undertook to drive the raiders from his premises. They had a search warrant, but whether they displayed it is in dispute. Also two questions have arisen as to the warrant itself.

It was a John Doe warrant, issued by Magistrate J. Weber on the strength of an affidavit by Boyd Fairchild, a state's attorney's investigator. Fairchild described the purchase of one pint of liquor, March 16.

Warrant Used Twice

In Fairchild's affidavit, the premises to be searched were described as "a two-story house" and the location given was, in a general way, the De King home. De King's house, however, is not a two-story but a story-and-a-half structure.

The second, and perhaps more important question in connection with the warrant, was raised by Attorney Milroy.

"That warrant was used twice" he declared. "The raiders made two visits to my clients' home. If the warrant was good for the first raid it certainly was not good for the second. If a warrant could be used thus repeatedly, then a single warrant would enable an officer to hound a man indefinitely."

Magistrate Weber himself admitted that Milroy was right in his contention that a warrant cannot be used twice.

JEALOUS, CHLOROFORMS SLEEPING MATE

According to the Hartford, Conn., police, they have the confession of Mrs. Harry E. Adams, right, that she administered chloroform to her husband, left, meteorologist at Hartford, Conn., while he slept, in order to keep him from affairs with other women. It was the old story of New England heritage demanding fidelity in her husband which caused her act. Little Anda Adams, inset, is the innocent victim of the wife's jealous act.

WARNING ISSUED

Marion Receives Notice of Time Limit on Franchise Tax

Official notices from the state tax commission have been received in Marion announcing that March 31 is the final day of the period allowed corporations for filing annual franchise tax reports. Returns are required from all domestic corporations in Ohio subject to franchise tax and also to all foreign corporations doing business in the state. There are approximately 35,000 corporations subject to the tax.

Notices were sent to all communities in the state where such corporations exist so that officials of all companies would have ample warning of the deadline.

"KONJOLA—THAT'S MY ADVISE TO ALL WHO SUFFER"

Happy Lady Tells How New Medicine Put a Quick End To Liver Trouble and Rheumatism.

MRS. R. DUNBAR

"I marvel at the powers of this new Konjola," said Mrs. R. Dunbar, route No. 2, Canton, Ohio. "I find it difficult to believe that two years of suffering from rheumatism has been so quickly and completely ended. For two years I had rheumatic pains all over me, and at times was scarcely able to walk across a room. Then, too, my liver was sluggish and I had frequent dizzy spells. My system was full of impurities, and weakened my general condition.

"A friend suggested that I try Konjola and put it to the test. How this wonderful medicine went to the very source of my troubles was simply astounding. My improvement was immediate, and day by day I became better and stronger. Today, the rheumatic pains and dizzy spells have vanished, and I can walk around the house all day. Konjola did more than I was told it would do, and I am eager to have this statement made public, as I consider it a duty to tell all the victims of rheumatism of my experience."

Konjola is different than any other known remedy in this section. It contains twenty-two juices extracted from certain herbs which invigorate the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels to a more healthy action. The effect of this Konjola on the entire system brings amazing relief in cases of suffering that has been going on for years. At the same time many weak and rundown systems have been restored to a new state of health thru this compound. Such a vast number of men and women in this city have told of their experience with this new medical product, until now, Konjola is the most highly indorsed medicine that is known in this section.

Konjola is sold in Marion at Stamp & Sams Pharmacy and by all the best druggists throughout this section.—Adv.

CALMLY TELLS HOW SHE SLEW HUSBAND

Hartford Woman Says Mate Was Unfaithful to Her and Beat Her

HARTFORD, Conn., March 27—Accepting her imprisonment with the same calm indifference which featured her telling of the slaying of her husband, Harry Adams, Mrs. Ohre Adams sat in her prison cell here today and told of the events leading up to the death.

"There as nothing of emotion as she told of placing a chloroform-soaked handkerchief over her husband's face as he lay in bed beside her and of watching him until he became still and cold.

"It had to come some time, why not then," she said. "I feel free, free for the first time since I married Harry 12 years ago.

"He was unfaithful to me and beat me, but the cruelest torture was when he would bring his women into the house and force me to cook for them and then send me out to the movies with my son, telling me the hour at which I could return," she said.

Tells Different Story

She explained that Harry had a strange power over women and was a close student of Buddhism and Schopenhauer. Selections from "The Bhavavadgito," a sacred Buddhist book, were read at Adams' funeral yesterday.

Mrs. Nellie D. Adams mother of the slain man, injected a different angle into the case today when she described alleged motor trips with different men she says her daughter-in-law made.

"These trips sometimes lasted a full day and half the night," Mrs. Adams said. "I saw things of which I did not approve but I didn't breathe a word of it, even to my son."

"Even now I feel more sorry for Olive than for Harry, as he is at peace and she must bear the stigma," Mrs. Adams said.

The families of the couple are close friends in Stonehem and the murdered man's mother and the imprisoned woman's father are caring for Amanda, small son of the couple.

Joseph Storey, the boy's grandfather, says that the boy fights the idea that his mother has killed his father and declares he is "going to take care of her, the way I have always done."

These three members of the family alone were present at the funeral services yesterday where Buddhist and Christian rites were observed, the latter in deference to Adams' mother, a Puritan, although her son was a confirmed atheist.

BILIOUSNESS RELIEVED . . . QUICKLY

This Purely Vegetable Pill quickly starts the bile flowing, gently moves the bowels,—the poisons pass away, the sour and acid stomach sweetens, and biliousness vanishes. CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS

Radio to Carry Easter

SUNRISE SERVICE ON PROGRAM

Tidings Across Country

BY MAC L. ROY

A FANFARE of trumpets will be borne across the continent on the wings of radio at approximately 8:15 o'clock Sunday morning, announcing to the world that an Easter Sunrise service is in progress on the Pacific coast.

Although the Easter morning fashion parade will then be forming on Fifth ave., New York, it will be precisely the hour of dawn in Volunteer park, Seattle, Wash., the scene of the annual sunrise service which will be broadcast from coast to coast through a combined network of stations associated with the National Broadcasting Co.

Proceedings in Volunteer park will start at 5:30 o'clock Pacific time, but it will be three hours later on the Atlantic seaboard, where the magic of radio will make it possible for listeners to participate in sunrise devotionals without rising with the dawn.

The Pacific coast service is held under the auspices of the Seattle Oratorio society, directed by John W. Bixel. The Charmed Land Philharmonic, of which John Spargur is conductor, assists in the presentation. Symphony music, anthems and hymns sung by the chorus and congregation, and an Easter message by the Rev. Cleveland Kleihauer, will be the high points in the one-hour program. Jennings Pierce, staff announcer of the NBC Pacific coast system, will have charge of the broadcast.

Approximately 40,000 persons attended the ceremonies in Volunteer park last year.

Another Easter Sunrise service, conducted in the Walter Reed General hospital, Washington, D. C., will be broadcast through the combined NBC system at 7:30 o'clock.

SOUTHERN MUSIC ON COMFORT HOUR

A MUSICAL chapter of life below the Mason Dixon line will be broadcast as the Coward Comfort music over the WEAF network of the NBC system at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night.

"Down South" is the title of this presentation, which introduces Rastus and Dinah, together with Uncle Joe and Aunt Chloe, who are represented by characteristic numbers and songs.

Among the selections is the original "Mammy" song written by Will Marion Cook America's foremost negro composer. Fritz Forsch is director of the orchestra with Thomas Joyce baritone, as assisting artist.

* * *

MOZART'S LIFE EPISODE SUBJECT

TWO stages of Mozart's life will be featured in the next hour that "Musical Episode" will present over stations of the Columbia Broadcasting System at 10:30 o'clock Thursday night.

The first part of the broadcast will picture Mozart, the infant prodigy, when he and his sister, Marianne, played at the royal court in Vienna. The scene at the imperial castle will be reproduced with the entertainment and feting that was accorded the young genius, and with the ill-fated Princess Marie Antoinette, future queen of France, who was Mozart's royal playmate.

The rest of this broadcast also will be laid in the royal palace, but a later era will be reproduced. A concert, given by royal command in honor of Mozart, will be heard, and selections from his most famous works, including excerpts from "Figaro," "Don Giovanni" and "Cosi Fan Tutti," are to be played.

[illegible] h it John cried in a [illegible] although she had al [illegible] ed her fingers lightly [illegible] e iron surface 'You re [illegible] t of here miss It

She laughed incredulously [illegible] n door could hur Why could happen if I

Know Get back miss [illegible] e him a mocking glance [illegible] ake me very curious John [illegible] de [illegible] a large room with cement [illegible] d windows It was Old [illegible] s laboratory Honest [illegible] h you wouldn't— [illegible] se not to touch a thing [illegible] r locked"

[illegible] I don't know for sure I never open it It hasn't been [illegible] seven years It never will [illegible] I can help it [illegible] ry curious She looked up the top of the door What's [illegible] ck John Where's it doing where nobody has occasion [illegible] it

[illegible] r tell you, miss Don't know about it Come now miss—healthy to look at these

[illegible] minute Her eyes were the immense clock imbedded [illegible] n above the door When [illegible] nd it John

[illegible] mpelled his forehead He was worried He did not know handle this inquisitive young [illegible] of course she was doing no

There was no danger as long [illegible] didn't attempt to open the Even in that event John was [illegible] certain in his mind what would happen but he had a suspicion that [illegible] ll be something dreadful He [illegible] n wholesome awe of the clock and the iron door The atmosphere of this little hall [illegible] gave him an uneasy feeling

Will do you mind asked Miss Lane again

Mind sir? Why I never—— He checked himself on the point of blurting out a secret

Miss Lane loosed a hysterical [illegible] What's the matter John Are you ill Shall I get you a glass of water

No I'm all right Sir straddled himself with a tremendous effort It's kinda close in here—has a bad smell Better get out

This time he seized the [illegible] s wrist and started to pull her away She yielded reluctantly but [illegible] to her shoulder she was still looking at the clock Suddenly she utter [illegible] little gasp

Listen she cried

John's hand fell limply to his side He stood stonily still

Lordy he exclaimed

With a sudden recoiling movement the girl clutched his arm He heard a sharp intake of breath She was trembling

Look John she cried hoarsely pointing a shaking finger at the door

John looked Something was crawling with an [illegible] touch along his spine Step by step he shrank back Miss Lane following slowly [illegible] an inch at a time the iron door was opening outward In a spasm of horror the girl pressed closer to him Each passing moment each jerky movement of the door touched their nerves like the clutch of some abominable thing

Farther and farther on [illegible] swung the door Longer and more [illegible] ously the seconds dragged Unlikely [illegible] mel drowsily the clock ticked

The girl screamed She clung to John in an ecstasy of dread Again her head rose she pointed shakily For just a moment the flicker of a face was seen in the opening It passed like a darting shadow like some sudden and ephemeral apparition

After a while John looked down at the girl in his arms She had fainted The door was closed again The clock was still ticking—peacefully joyously as if nothing had happened

Whose Face?

Morning came but the tempest showed no sign of letting up John Breck looking up at Old Blighty's cloud bandaged brow from the porch of Valhalla Notch guessed shrewdly that the region was in for another of those three or four day rains that were not infrequent in this part of the New Hampshire hills If anything the gal and the downpour were worse than the night before Well John would have to go to town this morning rain or shine There was no getting out of it

For the third time since getting up he went to Miss Lane's room on the second floor John was worried about the girl He had certain suspicions regarding Violet Lane and he doubted strongly whether it was accident alone that had brought her to the gates of Valhalla Notch but that had nothing to do with the fact that she appeared very ill So he tiptoed to her bed and looked down at her with a start she was not asleep Now she murmured something and John bent low to catch the words

The awful face! Oh—— [illegible] incoherent mumblings Oh—it was simply awful Let her [illegible] Am I mad at the [illegible] Close the door I don't want to see that face

John nodded gravely So he had seen the face too She was [illegible] ing it in her ravings it was still haunting her I could do Love [illegible] n against a man Johns part but He almost wished that it had been [illegible] little helpless he walked downstairs and entered the library Then he opened the door leading into the little hall at which [illegible] ther end was the iron door He could hear the clock ticking though it was so dusky in there he could hardly see the dial With a shudder he recalled the face He had caught only the faintest glimpse of that face He doubted whether he had ever seen it before or if he should recognize it upon seeing it again Did it belong to the prowler who had left the mud prints on the door Or to the man to whom [illegible] for whom he placed the letter [illegible] on the door Or was it——

But it was useless to speculate for he had no idea what the face looked like If anybody could ask him he would be utterly at a loss to describe it He did not even see whether it was an old face or a young one It had passed out of sight so quickly that it had left only a vague and very disturbing impression on his mind

He went to his room and collected a certain document consisting of several pages and containing instructions for his conduct in every conceivable emergency Putting on a pair of tortoise rimmed spectacles he scanned the paragraph he was looking for It had to do with this very case If anything of whatsoever nature happened to him he was to dispatch a telegram immediately to Mr Curry of the United Bankers Trust Co The telegram was to consist of a single word— Door

With a stolid air John put the document away He had ceased to wonder about the peculiar instructions that governed his duties at Valhalla Notch He had a good job at two hundred a month why worry Yet he did feel a little worried this morning After what had happened during the night he did not feel quite right about going away from Valhalla Notch It was only eight miles to Danville but it was a hard road to travel in the flivver especially in a downpour But rules were rules Besides Miss Lane had to have a doctor and there was no telephone in the house

He put on his raincoat and locked the front door carefully as he stepped out Then he went to the garage large enough to contain a number of vehicles where the flivver stood beside the yellow roadster in which Miss Lane had arrived He regarded the larger car with a speculative eye It would make faster time and it would be safer on a slippery road but he was not sure of his ability to handle the gearshift mechanism In the end he climbed into the humble car and stepped on a starter It slipped out of the garage swerved unsteadily on the wet asphalt outside glided down the curving drive way toward the gate and then John heard something that made him instantly bear down on the brake

A motor's horn blared shrilly He stared in surprise through the wet windshield

Charity Fund To Be Raised in Benefit Show Sponsored by King's Daughters

Will Share in Proceeds from Myrtyl Ross Players' Final Production

The outstanding women's charity organization of Marion county the Marion City and County Union of the Ohio Branch of King's Daughters will give its annual benefit show April 2 and 3 at the Grand theater through the courtesy of the Myrtyl Ross Players.

The Players will present "The Climax" the week of April 1 and for Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday nights and the Wednesday matinee have made arrangements with the King's Daughters whereby they and a while goes a per cent from each ticket sold outside of the box office window. The King's Daughters are now selling tickets for the show and have asked the support of the Marion public.

Final Play of Season

The Climax the last play which the stock company will present in Marion this season is a clean cut play with real human interest comedy without farce comedy hokum.

The Union of King's Daughters has grown to seven circles in the Emmanuel Lutheran Epworth M. E. and First Presbyterian churches from its founding here in 1901 by Mrs. Frank Grimshaw wife of the minister of the Presbyterian church at that time. The union is interdenominational.

Many of the people of Marion are not aware of the wide circle of relief work in which the King's Daughters take part. The outstanding work of the union in the past year and the one which has brought it close to the public attention was the raising of a fund of $1,600 for the purchase of a home for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bill of Leader st. Mr. Bill is the blind broom maker of Marion whose case caused public interest when the King's Daughters became interested in the purchase of the home for the couple.

Program of Service

The circles support the Free Clinic at the City hospital in cooperation with the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs and the Parent Teachers association here. All nursery equipment for the hospital is supplied by the union and the women gather to sew for the hospital whenever equipment is needed.

The union has secured mothers pensions and has been instrumental in raising several blind relief pensions together with the work of caring for tonsil and adenoid operations and fitting glasses for needy children of school age. A fund is also set aside for cooperation and support of the Nation Travelers Aid society.

Local charity work is done in coordination with the Red Cross nurses and the city relief committee. Sewing is done and clothes provided for children of the County Detention home.

The women are Circle Mothers to four girls at Maplecrest the King's Daughters Home for Dependent Girls at Bucyrus and give vacations each year to several worthy girls of the city at Rock Ledge Inn the King's Daughters vacation home at Catawba Island.

Activities in the union amount to thousands of dollars each year spent by the separate circles the city and the county unions.

Much of the charity work of the women is done unheralded and in the true spirit of giving.

Entire credit for the arrangements for the benefit show must go to Miss Geraldine Hord the treasurer Mrs. W. I. Miley chairman of the City Union said yesterday.

It is seldom the richest man who wears the biggest diamond ring.

The Heart Story of a Woman's Lasting Affections

BY ADELE GARRISON

Noel's Chivalry Comes to the Fore

As Mr. Underwood finished outlining his plan for the trapping of the assassin who had tried to kill Prince Georges and who we felt sure had attempted Mary's life I could not conceal a shudder. It was an ingenious scheme this plan to lure unarmed and helpless men into [illegible] upon the same baleful [illegible] as the fiend [illegible] but I knew that [illegible] to Harry Underwood's mind [illegible] the danger there would [illegible] the prince until [illegible] with him I was sufficiently [illegible] with Harry Underwood to [illegible] that himself and none other would be in the room with Prince Georges when the target should [illegible]

That Lillian shared [illegible] fear and my knowledge of [illegible] was quite [illegible] Underwood finished his ultimatum to the absent prince If Prince Georges [illegible] to stay in the hospital I must see Mary until he comes out again.

Behind his back Lillian clasped her hands [illegible] and a gleam of [illegible] admiration came into Harry Underwood's eyes.

Bully for you! he said [illegible] a white heat.

He put out his hand to the boy and Noel seized it [illegible] while the color flooded his face.

That will be easy to arrange Noel I said And it's only what we were planning anyway tonight you know.

I know he said looking at me unhappily and I knew that he regretted the compact he had made to pretend an affection for Princess Olina instead of breaking the engagement which she had forced upon him. But there was no other way now. I told myself. This attack upon Prince Georges had made it imperative for the royal international romance to remain as they were for the time being.

A Story of Boyhood Adventure

BY JUDD M. LEWIS

It was cold today but the sky was clear. Which I was very glad to see. I let Jubilee down by the rope in his teeth and he didn't seem to mind but maybe he is getting enough sense to know that it won't make any difference if he does mind. And when I emptied the ashes the wind blew them acrosst the yard a little ways and then gathered them all together and took them straight up in the air almost as straight up and as round as a smoke stack and kept twisting them around and around and finely blew them away and then all at once I found out that I had been standing there watching them until I was almost froze stiff so I hiked in the house and stayed there till the kitchen stove was red hot and then I opened the oven door to let the heat out so that the kitchen would be warm for my mother. My mother is lucky to have a little boy to make things warm for her and if I had a little boy to make the barn warm for me mornings that would be nice too. But it wouldn't be so very nice for him. I got hot water out of the reservoir to the stove to mix the cow feed with. The cows and my mother seem to have all the luck.

The girls were not in the barn again this morning when I was milking the cows and we don't care. That is just to pay them for getting in the empty box car with us and hiding away to another place and being gone all day and part of the night that time. We are all glad of it but probably about the time we want to go swimming they will be turned loose in us again and we will have to go in with our clothes on or not go in at all. Whoever made the first woman out of a man's rib certainly pulled a bone.

We all hiked to school early this morning and went into the basement to get warm before school called. Mush's rocking chair is busted and a window broke out and Mush has got a black eye and Mush's wife kissed him goodbye when he started to work so I guess they have made it up about him dumping her in the gutter. It was worth a black eye to slap her down in the gutter like Mush did. I bet he laughed all day yesterday whenever he thought about it. I have to grin yet when I think of it and when I think of her picking them up and putting them down chasing him all the way to the corner, and her plastered with mud.

My mother didn't want Annabelle Lee standing up in her high chair any more, so she has hung her table down the back of the chair and had set her up to the table. Annabelle Lee upset the bowl of milk gravy tonight. But that was my aunt's fault for leaving it where she could reach it. My grandfather says sometimes March comes in like a lion and goes out like a hyena.

As a usual thing, no power can make a man change his pronunciation except the dictionary.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

SHE NEVER WASHES DISHES with two maids to do all the work, of course her hands are lovely and white and smooth

Which are the hands of the rich man's wife?

SHE WASHES DISHES 3 times a day—yet her hands are as lovely as the hands of a woman of leisure Read the secret below—

305 Famous Beauty Shops say—

"WE actually cannot distinguish between the hands of a woman of leisure and wealth—with servants to do all her work—and the hands of a woman who uses Lux in her dishpan . . . Lux gives real beauty care."

What a marvelous suggestion for all busy women—

"Beauty care" right in the dishpan!

And how true it is! After washing dishes with Lux your hands do look smoother and whiter and lovelier than before! Every minute they're in the gentle, sparkling Lux suds they're receiving glorious beauty care!

For Lux is different from ordinary soaps . . . so utterly pure, so bland, that it protects the precious beauty oils of the skin—the youth oils—keeping the hands young and lovely. Many soaps dry up these oils, giving the skin that drawn, crisscross-lined look—making the hands seem work-worn and old.

Begin using Lux in the dishpan today! Give your hands the wisest, most inexpensive beauty care known. Lux for all your dishes costs less than 1¢ a day. Lovely hands for so small a price!

MANY PROBLEMS TO FACE NEW SECRETARY

Stimson Inherits Revolutions in Mexico and China, Canadian Controversy

BY GEORGE R HOLMES
Marion Star Staff Writer

WASHINGTON March 27—Henry L Stimson the new secretary of state got his first [illegible] to [illegible] work as soon as [illegible] probably more numerous and more complicated than ever before [illegible] foreign matters [illegible] will not finally take over until Friday but he started to [illegible] within half an hour after he had reached Washington and the next few days will be devoted to hard study of the embarrassments he has inherited

In almost every direction the new secretary looked today he saw worse ahead and much H L Stimson [illegible] it delicate and extremely important

Foreign Problems Two

Revolutions in Mexico and China with their inevitable complications concerning American citizens and their property

Even with Canada the traditional friend of the United States there is an acute controversy—over the [illegible] fire sinking [illegible] the Canadian schooner I'm Alone 60 miles at sea by rum runners [illegible] liquors

Half a dozen problems faced him from Europe as he surveyed his desk—the forth more coming [illegible] preparations [illegible] still unratified France American debt settlement and the World Court being among the most important

Out and beyond the imposing array of vexing problems there confront him at home the not inconsiderable task of reorganizing the diplomatic service which President Hoover has not cared to undertake until he could consult his premier

Important changes in the ambassadorships abroad are impending, he likes the more of minor shifts that are always in order to change at the top

New Ambassadors

New ambassadors are to be selected soon for Great Britain and France and two premier diplomatic posts in the American service Ambassador Manson B Houghton at St James and Ambassador Myron T Herrick at Paris have both submitted their resignations and it is the understanding that both are to be accepted

Hugh S Gibson now ambassador to Belgium probably will be sent to Paris when Herrick relinquishes his post Gibson has seen much European service and [illegible] for a period of two years to [illegible] a schedule of half time [illegible] and half time for study [illegible] Mr Reece will graduate [illegible] State University in June [illegible] degree and will take up [illegible] soon after the graduation exercises He is a graduate of the [illegible] school class of 1925

RICH YOUNG RULER IS SERMON THEME

Epworth M E Evangelist Discusses Essentials of Christian Life

Dr J Ira Lael evangelist at Epworth M E church discussed "the rich young ruler who never [illegible] his feet off the ground in his remarkable first night His story was of a young man who wished to fly but when the time came to ascend his heart and courage failed him and he preferred to remain on the ground and keep on just as he had been doing for year

The story was of the rich young ruler who came running to speak to Jesus desiring to know the way of eternal life Jesus admired the enthusiasm of the young man and his unquestioning obedience of the commandments and said One thing thou lackest Go sell what thou hast and give it to the poor and thou shalt have treasure in heaven and come take up the cross and follow me

Dr Paul continued But the young man lacked Jesus in his life character and thinking he things that were imperative in his life Jesus is the contemporary of every age and generation and no ancient order can get on without Him But the young man went away and because he had much possession He sold his birth right for a mess of pottage when no doubt the Lord wanted him for an apostle one of the twelve

New ease and safety in steering more comfort in riding

The special spring mount ing eliminates front wheel "shimmy" and steering wheel whip

ALL Packard cars—the Standard Eight, Custom Eight and Eight De Luxe—provide riding comfort and driving safety never before achieved in any automobile

Packard's unique and exclusive Shock Absorbing System performs a two fold function It cradles and cushions the body against bounding, rebound and "striking through It eliminates positively all front wheel shimmy

Double-acting, hydraulic shock absorbers Packard designed and Packard manufactured, are built into the chassis as an integral part—with ball ends lubricated by Packard's centralized oiling system Their gentle action, combined with Packard's deep and luxurious new cushions means divan like comfort on all roads

A special shock absorbing device into which the left front spring is mounted at the rear cancels all steering jars—prevents front wheel vibration and steering wheel whip

So easy and safe is the new Packard steering that the car can be guided over the most uneven roads—and at high speeds—with only the finger tips touching the wheel

When may we demonstrate the comfort and steering ease of the Packard model of your choice? A wide selection is available—for Packard now builds three complete Straight Eight lines at three distinct ranges of price

The Standard Eight (reduced March 4th) is priced from $2275 to $2675—the Custom Eight from $3175 to $3850—and the Eight De Luxe from $4585 to $5985—at the factory Individual custom cars are also available to order on the De Luxe chassis

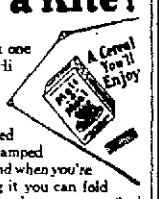
Want a Kite?



YOU can get one of these big Hi Flyers absolutely FREE. This kite has straight grained cross sticks clamped with a latch and when you're through flying it you can fold it up and put it away until you're ready to use it again. And, if the covering gets torn, just stick on a new one and it's all ready to go again.

You can get one free by buying a package of Malt-O-Meal from your grocer and he'll give you the kite with the purchase. Malt-O-Meal is a tasty wheat cereal flavored with barley malt and it will be relished by the entire family. Even the baby will like it and it is highly recommended by many eminent child specialists for infant feeding.

You'll like Malt-O-Meal. The picture of the package is right on the kite. Be sure to tell your grocer you want a kite when you ask him for Malt-O-Meal.

She needs the car too . . .

SAID a woman who lives in a suburb: "I look forward to week-ends, just as much as my husband does. But when Saturday comes, I send him off in the car for golf or fishing or something else that he likes. He thinks that I've been enjoying the car the other days of the week—but have I?

"My weekday use of the car is just like the use of any other tool of home-keeping. It's all business. In the morning I take my husband to work and meet him at night. In between I have to take the children to school, bring them home, go to market, go on the endless errands that it takes to run a home efficiently.

"But the fun of sitting behind a wheel and saying to myself: 'Now I'm going to take a drive for the joy of driving—to rest my nerves and smell the country' . . . that's what I'd like to do on Saturday."

Though the automobile has become a necessity of modern life, it is still a luxury in the best sense of the word. There is a thrill in driving for pleasure alone—in going just where you want to go—that nothing else quite equals.

To all families who need a second car—we make this suggestion:

A used car is unused transportation

The cars which General Motors dealers are taking in trade offer real opportunities. These cars vary in type, style and size. In many the potential mileage has scarcely been touched. Purchase the used car of your choice and pay on the convenient GMAC Plan.

BOXING IN MARION

DURING the past several months boxing has taken a big spurt in Marion under the promotion of the Eagles lodge. The last three cards here the local hall has been crowded to capacity. Such popularity must be deserved. If you will pardon the billboard bromide

* * *

SHOWS REALLY GOOD

WHETHER it has been just a fortunate lack of real competition or a master stroke of promotion the fight cards here this season have been exceptionally good. Although the talent is not listed in "Who's Who in American Sports" it has been good enough to provide fans with plenty of entertainment. The principals have not been clever boxers but their willingness to mix it far overshadows the defect.

* * *

MUST GUARD SPORT

THE fight game at its best has never been healthy. At the present time it is enjoying a clean slate and that reputation must be zealously guarded. A few poor bouts cannot be helped according to the law of averages but consistently poor cards can. It is up to the Eagles as sponsors of the sport to keep its reputation unblemished. If that is done the lodge will continue to reap returns financially and at the same time build the city to a place where a few of the bigger sluggers can be exhibited here.

* * *

USING WHITE GLOVES

DAME fashion has decreed that boxers will be passe unless they appear in the ring wearing white gloves. The white glove idea is gaining in popularity in practically every city where they are used. Marion is listed among those who are adopting the plan. White gloves were used for the first time here last week in the main go of the local card.

* * *

HAVE MANY ADVANTAGES

TELL white gloves have many advantages over the old style. These are apparent to fans seeing them used. To the writer the light shades gives a clear, distinct view of all punches making lights easier to score and eliminating any doubt on foul blows. The writer hopes that the gloves will be used in all the local bouts in the near future.

* * *

LOOK FOR BIG FIGHTS

WITH the winter boxing season nearly at an end fans are looking forward to outdoor staging of the sport. Perhaps some of the big boys will be brought to Marion for these events.

COUNTY TOURNAMENT TO CLOSE THURSDAY

Central, Harding Juniors Come Through with Victories in Class B Division, Four Point Eliminates Trojans in Class C

BY BOB LEEDY

MARION Senior Class B Harding, Hi-Y, Bible Class, Thursday night for the championship of the Class A division of the county tournament. Central Junior will battle Harding Juniors while Four Point Pioneers and Waldo Wildcats will tangle in the finals of Class C.

In the semi-final games last night in Class C the Four Point eliminated its brother quintet the Trojan Pioneer club 31 to 15. In Class B Central walloped the Hi-Y 41 to 21 and Harding Juniors won over Presbyterians 14 to 12. Sam Shovel's men cut the Standard Oil five in Class A 5 to 2 while in the midnight fracas Hi-Y staged a sensational last half comeback to smother Pleasant hopes 31 to 18.

Whiteum Leads Pioneers

Four Point Pioneers were led to victory over the Trojans through the fine offensive work of Whiteum who secured a neat little total of nine field goals. Such a lopsided win was hardly expected due to the close whelming victory scored by the Trojans over Point 2 of Central in the first round. Lines mild, Trojan forward scored seven points to lead his team. The score at the half last night was 16 to 5 with the winners increasing this margin through the entire second half. Four points tackle the Waldo Wildcats in the finals of this division at 7 o'clock Thursday night. The game is a toss up.

Harding Juniors in their win over the Presbyterians last night took to be the class of the division. Every man on the team shoots and fakes fairly well with the big center Hoffer standing out as a beacon light. If this boy isn't Harding material next year then we'll wear our snow shoes to play recreational baseball this summer. He scored 10 points nearly all of them on follow up shots. In the meantime he managed to hold the opposing centers to one two pointer. Presbyterians simply couldn't make a free throw missing 10 out of 11 chances. The half ended 24 to 1.

Central Looks Weak

Central Junior one of the pre-tourney favorites for the Class B title looked pitifully weak against the Hi-Y five with the exception of forward Pickerel who scored seven buckets to take high scoring honors. Unless the freshmen's play takes a sudden turn for the better in the next two days Harding Juniors will emerge with a championship in the game scheduled at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Lindsay Central center scored most of his team's points while Morgan was scoreless. Waddell was the man for the Lees with five points. The Hi-Y five put up a good fight but lack of team work told the tale.

Standard Oil's iron man team lost out in the most thrilling battle of the night in the first Class A semi-final 7 to 32. Neither five held over a five point lead at any stage of the game until the Shovels were ahead at the half 15 to 11 as the result of a long shot by Atkinson which went in as the gun cracked. Atkinson and Maunte were the only men to score, Jones with 12 and 10 points respectively. Kohl big Oil guard led his team with 11 counters. He gave the best individual scoring exhibition of the game. Martin and Gillums also scored nine points apiece for the losers. Very little hope is held out for victory by the Shovelites in the final clash of the tourney against the Hi-Y in the finals.

Walk Away In Last Half

Pleasant which already had put the dope basket on end by walloping the Y Indus 21 to 20 in the second round put the Harding Hi-Y out of the running for exactly one half of the game until the second half was too bad for the Pleasant stalwarts. In fact there was nothing pleasant about it until in the second half Gillum scored six field goals. Roush one Lockwood two, Keller two and Castner three. These combined with two charity tosses made a total of 30 counters in this final two periods. Pleasant trailed at the

WITH the two leading teams winning two games out of three the race for first place in the All Star Bowling League remained unchanged after matches rolled on the Recreation Alleys last night.

Five games separate the King Lumber five from the Builders Supply team. If Supply fellers hold first place with two standings and last night lost two games to Markert & Lewis while the Bradley Drugs managed to split even one win on the King Lumber.

Christin Drug dropped a game behind the second place team when Smart & Waddell won two games Jim Dugans moved up several notches by splitting its series with Midland Mutual.

Kopp rolled the high individual three game score getting 218 226 and 241 for a 687 total. Stewart with 621 Heffler with 601 and Dugan with 611 were the other bowlers to cross the 600 mark.

Training Camp News Bits

PHOENIX Ariz March 27 — The Cubs were at Phoenix today for their annual engagement against the Detroit Tigers of recent years. Both have brought to Mesa Cactus performers. The Bruins came on from Tucson where yesterday they engaged in mild workout against the University of Arizona nine. The Cubs won 14 to 4.

OWNERS THREATEN BASEBALL CZAR'S SAY

With two owners Clark Griffith (left) Washington Senators and Phil Ball (right) St Louis Browns forgetting their signed pledge to abide by Judge Landis decisions there's a pretty little test of power going on in the big leagues. Griff doesn't like it for apples that the Judge declared he was covering up players for minor leagues and fined him 1500 berries. Ball is copying the same stuff and insists he bought Johnny Mostil from Milwaukee in good faith and is losing heavy dough by Landis ruling the pitcher is a free agent. Furthermore he can't make up his mind to pay the $500 fine but maybe the Judge declared he was has something up his sleeve to say about that.

WITTENBERG STARTS SPRING GRID WORK

Herman in Charge of Practice Activities at Lutheran School

SPRINGFIELD March 27—Spring football practice at Wittenberg college began today with a record number of candidates, most of whom were on the freshman team last fall on hand for the first hand out of uniforms.

During the absence of Coach Ernie Godfrey who has been confined in a Dover hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis the spring training will be under the supervision of Coach Herman basketball and football mentor and Ted Schaefer former Lutheran backfield luminary.

Godfrey who is now convalescing at the home of his father at Dover, is expected to return to take charge of Lutheran athletics within a week or 10 days.

WORKS ON TEAM

Harris Says Hivers Must Work or Get Out

PHOENIX Ariz March 27 — After being trimmed by the Pittsburgh Pirates 7 to 1 the Detroit Tigers today faced the Chicago Cubs who defeated them five times in succession last week on the coast.

Before yesterday's encounter with the Pirates Manager Bucky Harris believing lack of condition and indifferent playing was responsible for the Tigers poor showing on the coast, delivered an ultimatum— Writers will be asked on players who do not keep in condition and try to win full games. If there are no takers they will be waived out of the league and those players who cannot be waived will be fined and fined heavily.

SENATORS WIN

TAMPA Fla March 27—The Brooklyn Robins met the Washington club again here today losing. Taken it on the jaw yesterday when the Nats came from behind in the ninth to win 7 to 6. Jimmy Ellison Brooklyn high school lad pitched so well for four innings that he may be returned.

KELLY COMES TO TERMS AT CAMP

ORLANDO Fla March 27—George Kelly veteran first baseman who has been practicing with the Cincinnati Reds here for several weeks by which he has been considered as a holdout for more money today is under contract with the Reds having signed on the dotted line yesterday for the 1929 season. Terms of the contract were not announced. Kelly batted .321 during the spring season and Joe Stripp third baseman are the only players now who have not come to terms with club officials.

INDIANS WILL FARM OUT EDDIE MORGAN

Touted Outfielder Fails To Overcome Last Year's Weakness

NEW ORLEANS March 27—Eddie Morgan touted last year as a natural is again showing lamentable weakness in judging fly balls and in base running and will probably be farmed out for the season according to Manager Roger Peckinpaugh of the Cleveland Indians. Last year it was thought he would overcome these weaknesses but he did not and so far this year has shown little improvement. The regulars beat the Yannigans in a five inning practice game yesterday. An exhibition game against the New Orleans Pels is scheduled today.

BACK IN CAMP

Senators Prepare To Resume Training After Meeker Funeral

TAKELAND Fla March 27—Manager Harry Liebold Secretary Thomas Ginger Shinault catcher and Fred Nicolai infielder of the Columbus Senators were expected to return to their camp here today after representing the club at the funeral of Roy Meeker former Senator pitcher which was held in Orlando yesterday. Meeker died suddenly Monday while pitching to batters in a practice before a scheduled exhibition game between the Senators and Cincinnati Reds which was called off after the team's death.

Auto Thief Steals Series of Cars As Gas Runs Out

BUCYRUS, March 27—A Studebaker sedan, stolen from the garage of Glen Sites, near Plankton, Sunday morning, was recovered yesterday at Greenville, O., and returned to its owner by Sheriff George Davenport. The Oder car was stolen when a Chevrolet sedan, stolen from Mansfield and driven by the thief, ran out of gas in front of the Oder home. Reports from Greenville stated that the Oder car had been abandoned and another car taken, in which the thief continued on his journey. The Mansfield sheriff returned the Chevrolet to Mansfield this morning.

Worth Cyphers Asks Damages Amounting to $20,225 Following Accident

MT. GILEAD, March 27—A petition has been filed in the common pleas court by Worth Cyphers in a damage case against Samuel D. Ivals.

This suit is the outcome of a collision between a team and wagon driven by the plaintiff and a car driven by the defendant on Route 95 between here and Williamsport last fall.

Cyphers claims he was driving his team and wagon towards Williamsport, on the right side of the road, and while passing a machine going west on the road the wagon was struck by the Ivals car which was going the same direction as the wagon.

The force of the car threw the wagon on the horses, causing them to run away. In the runaway Cyphers was dragged about 200 feet, injuring his spine and causing a concussion of his brain. One of the horses, valued at $175, was injured in the runaway and was later killed. The harness and wagon was damaged to the extent of $50.

The plaintiff states that he has been confined to his bed and under the doctor's care the past weeks following the accident. He also states that he suffers extreme pains about the head and neck and that his sight has been affected and impaired.

The plaintiff in his petition asks that the defendant be forced to pay him $20,000 for his bodily injuries, and $225 for the damage done to his team and wagon, making a total amount of $20,225.

WEIGH WHAT YOU DESIRE

If you ever weigh, the cause may not lie in over-eating or under-exercise. It may lie in a fault in nutrition which modern research has discovered. And which science now corrects.

The method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 20 years—millions of boxes of them. And many of the people you envy—with slender figures, new vivacity and health—will urge you to adopt this way.

The use of Marmola does not require abnormal exercise or diet. In every box you will find the formula, also the reasons for results. You will know just why your weight comes down and why every effect is helpful. Learn the facts, and do it now. Do so by asking your druggist today for a $1 box of Marmola.

BUCYRUS CASE IS ARGUED IN COURT

State Tribunal Reserves Decision in Sewage Disposal Controversy

BUCYRUS, March 27—After listening to an oral argument as to whether or not the city of Bucyrus will be compelled to comply with an order issued by the state department of health under the former state health commissioner, Dr. John J. Monger, requiring that it provide by Dec. 31, 1929, means for sanitary disposal of sewage, the supreme court at Columbus took the case, an appeal filed in January by City Solicitor C. F. Schaber, under advisement. The court did not announce when its decision will be made.

Judge Schaber, who represented the city in the hearing, argued that due to the adoption of the "home rule" amendment to the state constitution in 1912, the statutes under which the health department's order was issued are unconstitutional and void. Schaber also contended that the hearing given preceding issuance of the order was improper and unfair to the city. Attorney Lewis E. Laylin, Columbus, assistant in the offices of Attorney General Gilbert Bettman, in the state's defense, sought to refute all of the contentions advanced by Schaber.

WITH all the talk there is nowadays about the independence of the sub-deb generation, your reporter got a great kick out of hearing a grandmother describe how her granddaughter was following a good old tried and true method of improving her general health

My granddaughter Margaret,' says Mrs Zell of 6231 Catherine Street, Philadelphia, read about Nujol, was interested in it, so sent for a sample It seems she has been taking a tablespoon of Nujol once a day since and expects to continue this treatment Already she has found an improvement in her general health, her system functioning normally where other remedies had failed

That's one of the best things about Nujol It is just as harmless for young girls, or babies even, as it is for adults.

For Nujol contains no medicines or drugs It can't possibly upset you because it works so easily and regularly, in a normal fashion

Starting right

When it comes to health, we can afford to be guided by what older folks say For years now, mothers and fathers and grandparents have known the benefits of Nujol And the new crowd of girls and boys now growing up are finding that health is the most popular asset in the world today

Nujol was perfected by the Nujol Laboratories of the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) It can be bought anywhere for about the price of a ticket to a good movie Get a bottle today and try it, won't you? In sealed packages

Made by the makers of Mistol

The Rummell Aviation School operated by the Rummell Air Service Ltd of Findlay, Ohio will open a school of flight in this city very soon Young man now is your chance to learn to fly in new WACO airplanes
